2024 VCAAA LEGACY AWARD GUIDELINES

Deadline to submit nominations is Sunday, September 1, 2024. Award recipients will be announced in November 2024. Award categories include:

- Business/Organization
- Dementia-Friendly Business/Organization
- Community Member (Volunteer Based)

Award Description: The VCAAA LEGACY Awards are designed to recognize businesses, organizations, and community volunteers who have excelled in their roles to help improve the lives of older adults, individuals with disabilities, and caregivers.

Eligibility Requirements: Any individual, business, or organization must meet all requirements listed below in order to be eligible to receive a VCAAA LEGACY Award.

Category Eligibility Requirements:

- (a) Business/Organization — A business or organization nominated or selected to receive a VCAAA LEGACY Award must do business and serve clients in Ventura County. This category also includes all faith-based organizations. To be eligible, a business or organization must provide services for individuals 60 and older, individuals with disabilities, and/or caregivers. Individual recipients/business owners may not be members of the VCAAA's staff or Advisory Council; however, groups/organizations that are nominated may include members that are affiliated with the VCAAA. One award will be given in this category each year.
- (b) Dementia Friendly Business/Organization — A business or organization nominated as Dementia Friendly must do business and serve clients in Ventura County. To receive this award, a business/organization must exemplify the Dementia Friendly Ventura County movement and must be making strides to better the customer service experience for individuals with dementia and their caregivers. To be eligible, a business or organization must provide services for individuals 60 and older, individuals with disabilities, and/or caregivers. Individual recipients/business owners may not be members of the VCAAA's staff or Advisory Council; however, groups/organizations that are nominated may include members that are affiliated with the VCAAA. One award will be given in this category each year.
- (c) Community Member (Volunteer Based) — A community member nominated or selected to receive a VCAAA LEGACY Award must reside in Ventura County and must be working solely as a volunteer and cannot receive compensation for the work performed on behalf of their fellow Ventura County residents. Recipients of this award must be 60 years old or older and must be providing services for individuals 60 and older, individuals with disabilities, and/or caregivers. Recipients may not be members of the VCAAA's staff or Advisory Council. As many as two awards will be given in this category each year.
